Mr. Dave Bermosk

SALES EXECUTIVE - MICHIGAN & OHIO

Dave stumbled into his passion for the food & beverage scene while playing music on the world stage. A touring bass guitarist/song writer for over 20 years he found a love for so, the new tastes the world had to offer via Japan, Australia, England, Scotland, and other parts of Europe. This left him craving the food he could not find around home, so, he set out on a new journey of a career in the culinary industry.

Not long into his journey cooking he quickly climbed the ranks and would become a Sous Chef in Detroit working under James Beard Nominated Chefs and restaurants in the city. During Covid he found it a challenge to navigate the constant struggles of restaurants shuttering and decided it was time for a change of location. He decided to go back to his roots in Ohio to be around friends and family, that decision led him into his affinity for the Beverage Industry.

After grounding himself back home he found himself behind a bar of a small whiskey & wine boutique. He quickly fell in love with American Whiskey and soaked up the knowledge of the in-house bourbon steward, Lee Schmidbusch. Together they built a great whiskey program based on whiskey knowledge and education, building relationships with some old and new names in American Whiskey (New Riff, Limestone Branch, Pursuit Spirits, Smoke Wagon, Old Forester). They also started the Allen County Whiskey Society which is a thriving group of whiskey enthusiasts that continues to grow today.

Dave couldn't deny his love for living in Michigan and his partner Keyla that brought him back to this state. They live in Walled Lake, and he spends his spare time Kayak Fishing, Cycling, and of course writing and playing music.
